

Assembly

Gas Manifold plumbing hardware is not supplied. Plumbing hardware is to be installed by a licensed plumber at final location at time of installation. These instructions are true for all GM-Series gas manifolds.

The units are available with either three or four knockout holes in different lengths to fit the width of the workstation upright spacing.

